

Golf Professional Richard Winstead honored as the 35th Central New York PGA Hall of Fame Inductee

Founded in 1987 for the purpose of honoring those CNY PGA members who have exhibited outstanding dedication and exemplary service to the membership on a section level, national stage, or both, during their tenure in the golfing industry, the following have contributed in a special way to our section's growth and heritage of professionalism.

A nominee should have been a member in good standing in the Central New York PGA Section for a minimum of 10 years.

An individual's overall contribution to golf should be considered as a valid reason for nomination. The contribution may be measured by the individual's leadership in the following areas:

1. Devotion to involvement and level of dedication to the membership as an officer, board of directors, or committee chair/member on the section or national levels.
2. Training, mentoring and development of PGA Professionals.
3. Tireless ambassador of the game of golf and constant promoter of the PGA Professional.
4. Continued commitment to significantly enhance the growth of golf at their facility and also in the surrounding community.
5. Possession of exemplary moral characteristics and is a role model for peers.
6. Outstanding competitive playing record.

Richard will be honored December 6th at Drumlins Banquets along with the section's 2018. Special Award Winners who will be determined in October.

A closer glance of the 2018 CNY PGA Hall of Fame inductee Richard Winstead: click here